Dario Feal
ART DIRECTOR / STAGE DESIGNER /
PRODUCTION DESIGNER

Graduated from the School of Fine Arts, he participated in several art exhibitions. After completing his studies in Arts, he entered the University of Buenos Aires, graduating with a degree in Image and Sound Design.

From that moment on, he began to develop his professional career as an Art Director in advertising, with more than three hundred campaigns. In cinema, he directed the art of several Argentine feature films, such as Kóblic, for which his work was nominated for the Goya Awards, Spain 2019, as Best Art Direction. That same year, he designed the set and costumes for the play Equus, earning ACE Award nominations in both categories.

At the same time, he began teaching at different university institutions, and in 2016 he won the tenure of the Art Direction Chair at the University of Buenos Aires.

In 2020, he participated in two theater cycles for the Teatro Nacional Cervantes. That same year, the province of San Juan, Argentina, commissioned him to design the MHU (Museum of Urban History). In 2021, he worked in the United States as Art Director for a film shot in Florida. In 2022, he created the set and costume design for the play Así de Simple, premiered at the Koubek Center, Miami. More recently, he completed his second U.S. feature film as Art Director.

He has also collaborated as a set designer and ambientador for Norwegian Cruise Line, developing immersive environments for their video productions and promotional campaigns.

In 2023, he was part of IAFFM, having the honor of serving as a Jury member of that film festival. In 2024, he was accepted into the Art Residency Program at the Koubek Center / Miami Dade College, and was recently awarded the Broward County Artist Support Grant to carry out his installation project Imitation of Life.

He currently alternates his academic work with his professional career, continuing to expand his practice across theater, film, advertising, and the visual arts.
